

Short Biography (274 words)

Natalie has one job: to love you and all of creation unconditionally.

In 2007, after nearly two decades of suffering from crippling fear, depression and diagnoses, Natalie heard a voice which was kind and infinitely loving. That loving force led her on a physical challenge to test every fear and each time, the Soul emerged freer. She lives in a state of love and bliss and a divine and Perfect Love that is always burning within what she calls "the body she is in". She says that God has taught her everything she has asked to know: including the value of fear and suffering in the Soul's journey Home: back to its truest nature of Perfect Love and freedom.

Natalie says that she is married to God and shares dialogues with God. She says that God speaks through her in order to provide messages to others. She hasn't had a bad day since 2007 and, says that actually, every day, every moment is more wonderful than the one prior.

The exquisitely loving and powerful tool she offers is called FearFlip. FearFlip is a tool that demonstrates the powerfully helpful nature of fear to the Soul's return to God/Perfect Love and complete freedom. It consists of a few questions and can be done by toddlers.

Although Natalie is new to the spiritual teacher/counselor/guide scene, at 39 years-old, she brings a vibrant wisdom that is both beyond her years, comfortably engaging and relevant to people of any religion, spiritual belief or non-believer.

Natalie's book, Enjoying the Bliss: Realizing Your Truest Nature, is expected to launch in late 2014. For more information, visit fearflip.com or enjoyingthebliss.com.
